Expert Stakeholder Workshop: Energy & Environmental Developments in the PJM Region

PRESENTED BY:

WEDNESDAY, MAY 2, 2018
Grand Hyatt Washington

1000 H Street
Independence Ballroom

Washington, DC 20001

Join the Great Plains Institute and Duke University's Nicholas Institute for Environmental Policy Solutions for an expert workshop for state officials and stakeholders exploring recent energy and environmental policy developments in the PJM region.

The workshop will feature a panel of state officials from the region evaluating recent PJM market design proposals and decisions and developments in their states. A stakeholder panel will detail recent developments in the electricity industry, including some of the recent commitments by utilities to decarbonize their portfolios. A third panel will explore timely environmental issues impacting states and stakeholders.

The May 2 workshop is hosted by the Great Plains Institute and the Nicholas Institute for Environmental Policy Solutions.

Early registration is open! Please click here to register or for more information about the workshop.
